ABSTRACT

This publication lists more than 80 nationally available newsletters, journals and magazines which focus primarily on topics related to the education and development of young children. Included in each listing is information on the availability, scope, price, frequency of publication and price per issue. The guide is divided into two main sections: (1) newsletters and (2) journals and magazines. Only publications of general interest are included. Many useful newsletters which emphasize regional or local activities have therefore been omitted. All publications mentioned in this guide have been selected from among those received by the ERIC/ECE Clearinghouse. (Author/SB)

The material in this publication was prepared pursuant to a contract with the National Institute of Education, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Contractors undertaking such projects under government sponsorship are encouraged to express freely their judgement in professional and technical matters. Prior to publication, the manuscript was submitted to the Area Committee for Early Childhood Education at the University of Illinois for critical review and determination of professional competence. This publication has met such standards. Points of view or opinions, however, do not necessarily represent the official view or opinions of either the Area Committee or the National Institute of Education.

INTRODUCTION

This publication lists selected newsletters, journals and magazines which focus primarily on topics related to the education and development of young children.

The guide is divided into two main sections: (1) newsletters and (2) journals and magazines. Only publications of general interest have been included. Many useful newsletters which emphasize regional or local activities have therefore been omitted.

All publications mentioned in this guide have been selected from among those received by the ERIC/ECE Clearinghouse. Readers are invited to send ERIC/ECE sample copies of periodicals which might be included in future editions of the guide.

The Educational Resources Information Center/Early Childhood Education Clearinghouse (ERIC/ECE) is one of a system of 16 clearinghouses sponsored by the National Institute of Education to provide information about current research and developments in the field of education. The clearinghouses, each focusing on a specific area of education (such as early childhood, teacher education, languages and linguistics), are located at universities and institutions throughout the United States.

Each clearinghouse staff searches systematically to acquire current, significant documents relevant to education. These research studies, speeches, conference proceedings, curriculum guides, and other publications are abstracted, indexed and published in Resources in Education (RIE), a monthly journal. RIE is available at libraries, or may be ordered from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Another ERIC publication is Current Index to Journals in Education (CIJE), a monthly guide to periodical literature which cites articles in more than 700 journals and magazines in the field of education. Articles are indexed by subject, author, and journal contents. CIJE is available at libraries, or by subscription from Macmillan Information, 909 Third Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022.

The Early Childhood Education Clearinghouse (ERIC/ECE) distributes a quarterly newsletter which reports on new programs and publications and RIE documents of special interest. For a complete list of ERIC/ECE publications, or if you would like to subscribe to the Newsletter, write: ERIC Clearinghouse/Early Childhood Education, University of Illinois, 805 West Pennsylvania Avenue, Urbana, Illinois 61801.
